CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Brothers,

Thank you for a great year of fellowship and service. It was an honor to be your 2018 Eswau Huppeday Lodge Chief. I would like you to join me in congratulating our new 2019 lodge chief Shea Leighton, I can't wait to see what the is to come for next year.

Fall fellowship was very good this year! Lots of good fellowship with training and quest! We also had our new Vigil members get inducted at Fall Fellowship, congratulations all who received this prestigious award.

LLD was one for the books!! We were able to get lots of good ideas for theme and also how the lodge will run in 2019. We also made motions in our business meeting about a new standard patch! Designs are welcome and you can direct them to Jimmy or David over Email.

Again thank you so much for a great year, I'm looking forward to this new year in Eswau!

WWW,

Austin Ford, Lodge Chief

2018 NOAC

Brothers from Eswau Huppeday travelled to Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana for the National Order of the Arrow Conference in July and came home in August with knowledge, skills, memories, and accolades too! Ivory Steed was a top 20 finisher in the Maze Runner event at NOAC and our AIA competitors saw all their hard work payoff with some national recognitions.

Dylan Cody, Caleb Lee, and Shea Lighton received an Excellent in Pre Ordeal and a Good in the Brotherhood ceremony, while Dylan received an Excellent in the Vigil ceremony.

Five of our dancers were ranked in the top 10 in the nation in Old Style; Coty Land, William McSwain, Chris Stinson, Andrew Salisbury, and Jarett Story. And Jarett was ranked 2nd place in the nation in individual Old Style.

In Historical Team Group Dance, Eswau Huppeday took the National 1st place title and they also took 3rd place in Pow Wow Exhibition Group Dance.

Congratulations to everyone for being recognized at NOAC!

FALL FELLOWSHIP

Fall Fellowship was held Friday October 5 through Saturday October 6, 2018 at Camp Bud Schiele due to the original date being postponed due to a hurricane.

Campfire on Friday night was jam packed! Skits, Baby Sharks, Lodge Officer Nominations - and it featured some great information on the 2019 Dixie Fellowship that we'll be hosting at Camp. It's definitely time to get involved and fired up to make sure this Dixie is one to be remembered!

After all that our elected Vigil Honor members were recognized and we gathered in the DHall for food and fellowship at Cracker Barrel.

Saturday morning brought us some great training cells and the afternoon was filled with the events of the TriWizard Tournament. In all, it was another fantastic Fall Fellowship and well worth the wait.

VIGIL HONOR MEMBERS

Congratulations for our newest Vigil Honor Members from Fall Fellowship!

The weekend begins with a Powwow on Friday night at 8:30pm. All dancers are welcome. When the MC calls for everybody to dance, you may enter the dance arena in your street clothes. It is preferable for you to wear long pants instead of shorts.

This is a great opportunity to learn Powwow protocol. There are normally a number of exhibition dances on Friday night. If you haven't determined the style of dance you want to pursue, this would be an excellent opportunity to see the different outfits and dance styles. Please bring a camping type chair to sit in if you are not dancing.

Frequently Asked Questions About the Carolina's Indian Seminar continued

Where do I stay at CIS?

Rooms are provided in the college for sleeping. There are designated classrooms for Females and Males as well as an open area in the gym. Bring your cot and/or sleeping bag. Showers are available in the gym and restrooms are available on each hall. There are a number of local hotels if you prefer to stay off-campus.

Is there food at CIS?

On Saturday, breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided. You will receive a wristband to tell you which meal time to attend. Drinks and snacks will be available for purchase between meals.

Most people staying offsite eat breakfast at the hotel; old friends have supper at a restaurant; and many leave before breakfast on Sunday. We are trying to keep from increasing the event fee. One way to do this is to reduce the amount of food we throw away by having an accurate count for meals. Please indicate the meals you plan to eat on your registration form.

PLEASE be aware that we have lost the use of the cafeteria due to construction. The menu has been altered to accommodate the increased cost of providing a convenience style menu. Saturday night cracker barrel and Sunday breakfast will no longer be provided. We will not be able to accommodate special food requirements.

What happens at CIS on Saturday?

On Saturday, you will have the opportunity to attend as many as 5 classes starting at 9:00 am. A few classes may have a charge associated with them. An example would be an all-day class where you complete a pair of leather moccasins. Most classes, however, provide all of the materials you need free of charge.

There are approximately 125 classes available on Saturday. Everyone can find classes that suit their interests and skill level. The classes offered include outfit construction like beading, weaving, leatherwork, feather work, quill work, etc. as well as Powwow etiquette, dance styles/instruction, drumming, flute making, and basketry to name a few.

The instructors travel from all over the United States to teach. They are extremely knowledgeable and always happy to answer your questions. There will be vendors available Friday through Saturday to purchase outfit materials if you just can't wait to get started on your new outfit!

What's up with the Pow Wow on Saturday night?

The Saturday night Powwow starts at 8:15pm and is an excellent time to show off some of the skills you acquired during the Saturday classes. We often have in excess of 200 dancers on the floor on Saturday night representing a large variety of dance styles. This is a learning Powwow. Don't be afraid to ask someone to help you with your dancing or to help you better understand Powwow protocol. Most of the young men and women you see dancing started at CIS in years past and love to show off their skills.

What happens at CIS on Sunday?

Please plan to leave the campus by 9:30 or 10:00am.
