Brrrrrraaaaaiiiiiinnnnnnsssss (A 2011 Dixie in Review)

As the undead brothers of Eswau Huppeday made their way up to Camp Daniel Boone on Friday, the weather looked to prove inconvenient. As the rain began to pour, many brothers were reminded of last years' Dixie with the monsoon of Eswauter. Despite the rain, Tsali was able to host an incredible Opening Campfire inside their dining hall. After the story of Tsali and the Cherokee and the official opening of the Dixie Fellowship, SR5 was treated to a terrific Cracker Barrel and much needed sleep. Saturday, once a few of the brothers (including myself) took off their Eswauter tee shirts and put on their zombie shirts for this year, the rain cleared and the sun warmed up the atmosphere for AIA and quest events. Fueled by the energy of (in this writer's opinion) the best food served outside of Eswau events, the brothers competed in Ceremony, Dance, Administration, and an extremely competitive quest for the Golden Arrow. Dixie had a very important guest this year- the National Chief of the Order of the Arrow, Jonathan Hillis. Eswau even had the pleasure of hosting Jonathan on their Ultimate Frisbee team!

After a long day of competition, patch trading, and fellowship, the brothers of SR5 were gathered together for the Section elections. James Hylemon, the 2010 Section Vice-Chief was elected to be the 2011 Section

Chief of SR5. Tanner McFetters, the Catawba Lodge Chief was elected to Section Secretary, and our very own Lodge Chief Ty Conley was elected to Section Vice Chief! Congratulations Ty! The Team Dance Competition following the elections was incredible to watch as Eswau and Tsali battled for the op spot! Sunday morning, as we battled to stay warm, Dixie was closed with the awards ceremony (with our tombstones in the background of course!). Eswau did exceptionally well, including a sweep of Old Style dance and placing in half of the Quest events. Looking back, this years' Dixie was a fun time for all. I hope we can strive to keep up our spirits, and strive toward perfection in all we do in the upcoming year.

Lodge Chief

Brothers,

Ordeal season is upon us! Soon we will induct new brothers into our order and into one of the best lodges in the country. I feel blessed to be the chief of such an awesome lodge. At Dixie, I saw 100 brothers come together and overcome the rain to have a great weekend. I saw brothers have so much spirit, they made other lodges go dead silent. I saw brothers shed blood, sweat and tears on Saturday afternoon.

Whether it was dancing, or Quest, everybody gave it 110%. I was so impressed with our competitive spirit and determination. I saw adults, so eager to volunteer to give up a morning or an afternoon to judge events.

Lastly, I saw brothers give each other high fives on Sunday morning because they had done so well in Quest and Indian Affairs. It made me very proud Sunday morning to keep running down those stairs to receive those ribbons. I'm not gonna lie, we didn't win everything, but we definitely gave it everything we had as a lodge. You should be very proud of yourselves.

For those of you who have not heard, I was elected the SR-5 Section Vice-Chief at Dixie. I am very excited to serve the section as we plan for Dixie 2012 and the section activities at NOAC 2012. I plan on representing Eswau Huppeday the best that I can as I travel to different lodges. If any of you have suggestions for Dixie or the next year in the section please feel free to let me know!

Earlier I stated that the ordeal season is upon us. For these ordeals to be successful we will need as much help as possible. If you have thought about serving the lodge but not sure how, this is the perfect opportunity to try different committees and teams to see how you enjoy serving cheerfully. We are going to need members for ceremonies teams, cook team, and we are going to need many, many elangomats. There is an opportunity for everyone in the lodge to serve their brothers. I look forward to seeing everyone at an ordeal this year. If you have any questions or suggestions feel free to email me at ty-co587@yahoo.com or message me on facebook.

Brotherhood in May

Your lodge needs you! That's right, brothers. If you've been an Ordeal member in Eswau Huppeday Lodge for ten months or more, it's time to take it to the next level. It's time to seal your membership in the Order by becoming a Brotherhood member of the OA.

'How can I do this', you ask? Easy! Come out to May Ordeal, held at Camp Bud Schiele from May 13th - May 15th, and begin the simple process.

Becoming a Brotherhood member is the first step in continuing your service to your Lodge, and it's a decision you certainly won't regret.

Dixie in Review

Tsali lodge hosted this year's SR-5 Conclave at Camp Daniel Boone. Eswau Huppeday lodge attended the event along with the ten other lodges from the section ranging from Western North Carolina, South Carolina, and Northern Georgia. Friday night and Saturday morning there was a little carryover from last years Eswuater Theme. Rain fell at an alarming rate. So much so that Lake Allen (Camp Daniel Boone's Lake) started to spill over onto an adjacent trail. The rain did dampen some personal belongings, but not the spirits of Eswau Huppeday and our zombie themed antics.

Saturday morning the rain persisted momentarily, but quickly subsided to beautiful blue skies. Camp Daniel Boone, high in the mountains, offered lovely views of adjacent ridges and peaks. Justin Cobb taught the lodge's training cell Saturday Morning while Shelton Binion, Grant Shuler, Ty Conley, Miles Harbin, and Brian Volz took part in the ceremonies evaluation.

Saturday afternoon marked even greater competitions for Eswau Huppeday. Jimmy, David, Andrew, and Sam started carving the totem pole, but regrettably without a spell checker. Many members of the lodge competed in individual dance, drumming, and the Quest for the Golden Arrow. The Ultimate Frisbee team had a special member—the National Chief, Jonathon Hillis.

As the sun began to set over Camp Daniel Boone the temperatures began to plummet. Like the challenge offered by the rain the cold air did little to effect the cheerful spirit of our brothers. As the dance team performed two Seminole dances our lodge chief Ty Conley gave a performance of a different kind. In a successful bid to become Section Vice-Chief Ty pumped up the crowd with the eloquence and candor of senior statesmen.

Allowelendam Report

Greetings brothers,

Because of the unfortunate bad weather at our camporee, Allowelendam will be conducting our call out ceremony at the scout show. We will be having our chapter meeting there also. A time will be decided on soon. Please bring any service project ideas since we only have one planned this far. Also, we are currently collecting pill bottles to send over seas so please bring any you have collected so far. If you have any questions, or are not on the email list, email me at cobbj94@gmail.com.

Thanks,
Justin Cobb
Allowelendam Chapter Chief

Lodge Chief

Brothers,

It is once again time that we begin the process of new member induction. This process begins with your home units. But it should not stop there! Many units/crews do not choose to select members or they do not know about the Order of the Arrow. I encourage each of you to make contacts with other units in your districts to see if they need help in selecting members. If they do not know about the Order of the Arrow, educate them!

If you need help, ask your chapter chief or chapter advisers. Each Chapter Chief should request a few minutes at each roundtable to discuss the Order and how it fits into the larger Scouting picture. We should all strive to help our unit election committee reach all the units in the Council!

What a fun time we had at the Dixie Fellowship this year. Despite all the obstacles, our lodge again showed that we are capable in competing in all aspects of the Fellowship. I congratulate those of you that participated and those that may have placed in your respective competitions! Your hard work represented yourselves and our lodge well! Thanks so much to those of you who helped get the lodge ready for competitions, registration, and fun!

I have had some really good input from many of you, asking, why are we not able to win some of the competitions? Much of the spirit, lodge of the year, administrative events, and even the quest events take as much time to plan as our Indian event competition participants. Many lodges put hundreds of hours into planning for these competitions.

Other lodges ask why we have done so well in the Indian events, and it is because we have dedicated leaders in these areas. Not to say that we don't in the other areas, we just don't prepare so well!

So, if you want to make some lodge history! Don't be afraid to step up for some of these competition areas and start planning for the next Dixie Fellowship! Next year, we will be at Camp John J Barnhardt, another North Carolina Dixie! So plan to be there next year!!!!

Spring Fellowship Recap

When Eswau brothers come to a Fellowship event, they know to come expecting fierce competition, fantastic training, and more fun than you can shake a Nerf-gun at. Spring Fellowship, the first main event of the 2011 Lodge Year, did not disappoint. On Friday night, Josh Trivett and Lodge Chief Ty Conley served as emcees for the campfire program at Webelo's Woods, while the Dance Team entertained and educated all that were in attendance with a rousing set of dances followed by chance for younger Scouts to see for themselves just what the Eswau Huppeday Dance Team is all about.

Saturday morning saw an opportunity for brothers to sit in on fun and exciting training including "Patch History", "Teepee Construction", "Zombie Survival", and more. Thankfully, the rain held off long enough for chapters to participate in the much-anticipated Quest Events, skillfully organized by Activities Chairman Michael Lowder. The games began with an eventful Zombie Ultimate Frisbee tournament. The afternoon continued with a camp-wide game of Humans Vs. Zombies that left no brother unaffected by the palpable spirit of competition and brotherhood that could be felt in the air. The highlight of the day, however, came when brothers assembled in the Dining Hall for the fateful "Brain Eating Contest", a fearsome challenge that tested the digestive-fortitude of 4-man teams fielded by each Chapter.

Overall, the weekend went down as a huge success, and served as a reminder of just how great Eswau Huppeday really is. Don't take my word for it, though- attend a Lodge Event and see for yourself!
