CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Happy Holidays Everyone,

I hope everyone had an amazing time with friends and family over Thanksgiving break. As most of us know with the holidays coming up, our big kick start for the New Year (Winter Banquet) is also very close. For those of you that do not know what all is involved with Winter Banquet, we have an amazing meal, door prizes, and laugh at the many mistakes at of our amazing lodge members as we remember their foolishness as we do our annual Nabby Awards. Also we commemorate our many accomplishments of the year and honor the lodge members who worked extremely hard this past year with the James E. West, Founders, and Outstanding Arrowmen awards. It will definitely be a night full of laughing and crying as we push forward into the New Year.

On a side note Jimmy Arthurs is one to show his emotional side during this time of the year, so if you want to see a grown man cry make sure you come.

Speaking of bringing in the New Year, this upcoming year is extremely special seeing as it is Eswau Huppeday Lodge's 50th Year Anniversary! During Winter Banquet we will be showcasing some magnificent ideas that the adults and youth have come up with to really make this year something to remember.

Before the banquet starts however, we will be having an American Indian Affairs open house for all who are interested in AIA events within our lodge, led and coordinated by our VCIA Thomas Colton. Along with that, for those that are not as interested in AIA, we will also be having an Activities social for those that want to help plan some of the many activities for the upcoming year, led and coordinated by Matthew Baker and Josh Trivett.

We expect to see a large crowd for Winter Banquet on Saturday, January 4th, so I hope to see you all there.

Matt Cook
Lodge Chief

WINTER BANQUET

On Saturday January 4, 2014 Eswau Huppeday will hold it's annual Winter Banquet at the First United Methodist Church in Hickory NC. At this event, we'll look back on the past year of Lodge activities and look forward to celebrating our 50th Anniversary as a Lodge in the Order of the Arrow.

Dinner will begin at 6:00pm, and will be followed by a fun evening program of awards, trivia, prizes, remembrances, and of course, the Nabby Awards.

Pre-register or pay at the event – we'll take walk-ins but not phone calls!

BRACE YOURSELVES

FALL FELLOWSHIP CELEBRATES OUR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Save the Date: Sept. 12-15, 2014

Make plans now to join us as we celebrate this milestone. We'll look back over our past with past members and Lodge Chiefs and look forward to the a future of continued cheerful service.

We'll be celebrating at every event this year – so don't miss out. You can register for all the anniversary year events now using the form in this issue.

Also in this issue you'll find a special order form for pre-ordering collectibles that celebrate our golden anniversary.

Carolina's Indian Seminar

The 2014 Carolina's Indian Seminar will be held Friday, January 24, 2014 to Sunday, January 26th, at the Mitchell Community College Continuing Education Center in Statesville, NC.

You must pre-register by Sunday, January 12th. The cost is $38 for participants and $20 for staff.

Check out the CIS First Timers Guide on the next page of this issue for tips and details.

Who Can Attend CIS?

This event is open to everyone with a desire to learn. Bring your Scout or church group or make it a family weekend. Registration starts Friday at 5:00pm – follow the signs. Uniforms are not required but appropriate attire is requested.

What happens at CIS on Friday?

The weekend begins with a Powwow on Friday night at 8:30pm. All dancers are welcome. When the MC calls for everybody to dance, you may enter the dance arena in your street clothes. It is preferable for you to wear long pants instead of shorts.

This is a great opportunity to learn Powwow protocol. There are normally a number of exhibition dances on Friday night. If you haven't determined the style of dance you want to pursue, this would be an excellent opportunity to see the different outfits and dance styles. Please bring a camping type chair to sit in if you are not dancing.

Where do I stay at CIS?

Rooms are provided in the college for sleeping. There are designated classrooms for Females and Males as well as an open area in the gym. Bring your cot and/or sleeping bag. Showers are available in the gym and restrooms are available on each hall. There are a number of local hotels if you prefer to stay off-campus.

Is there food at CIS?

On Saturday, breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided. Breakfast will be provided on Sunday. You will receive a wristband to tell you which meal time to attend. Drinks and snacks will be available for purchase between meals.

What happens at CIS on Saturday?

On Saturday, you will have the opportunity to attend as many as 5 classes starting at 9:00 am. A few classes may have a charge associated with them. An example would be an all-day class where you complete a pair of leather moccasins. Most classes, however, provide all of the materials you need free of charge.

There are approximately 125 classes available on Saturday. Everyone can find classes that suit their interests and skill level. The classes offered include outfit construction like beading, weaving, leatherwork, feather work, quill work, etc. as well as Powwow etiquette, dance styles/instruction, drumming, flute making, and basketry to name a few.

The instructors travel from all over the United States to teach. They are extremely knowledgeable and always happy to answer your questions. There will be vendors available Friday through Saturday to purchase outfit materials if you just can't wait to get started on your new outfit!

The Saturday night Powwow, starting at 8:15pm, is an excellent time to show off some of the skills you acquired during the Saturday classes. We often have in excess of 200 dancers on the floor on Saturday night representing a large variety of dance styles. This is a learning Powwow. Don't be afraid to ask someone to help you with your dancing or to help you better understand Powwow protocol. Most of the young men and women you see dancing started at CIS in years past and love to show off their skills. Your family is welcome to come watch you dance – just remind them to bring a chair.

What happens at CIS on Sunday?

Sunday morning breakfast is served at 8:00am and will be followed by a religious service at 8:30. Plan to leave the campus by 9:30 or 10:00am. Continued on page 4

CIS First Timer Guide contd.

CIS is a wonderful place to learn new skills and make lifelong friends. If you like the seminar weekend, the AICA committee, who hosts this Powwow, holds a local dance Father's Day weekend where you can rejoin your new friends and dance all weekend. The Cabarrus Powwow Association holds a Powwow in September where you can reunite once again. In addition to these local dances, your new friends would love for you to travel the country and attend the Powwows their committees hold.

We look forward to seeing you at CIS! If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact Tammy Miller using the form on eswau.net – short link: tinyurl.com/cis2014

Beaver Day is Saturday March 1st

Join your Brothers for a day of service at Camp Bud Schiele on Saturday March 1, 2014.

Arrowmen as well as Troops and Packs from throughout the Piedmont Council will join together in a day of labor to keep our camp in top condition.

There are always lots of projects going on that day and lots of hands will be needed, so make plans to join us for Beaver Day.

Chapter Reports

Oconoluffee

At the August Ordeal our chapter inducted twenty-one new brothers: the largest group in this century. Due to new email listings and aggressive new vice chief of communications, we had twenty-one youth and four adults at the September Chapter Meeting.

In cooperation with American Legion Post 544, our Chapter sponsored a Flag Retirement project on September 20, 2013 at Sandy Ridge Baptist Church. Twenty brothers used eight fire barrels to retire between 2,500 to 2,600 flags that night. Breakfast was served by some veterans at 12:30am ... yum!

The Chapter's ability to compete in the inter-chapter competition at Fall Fellowship was hindered due to the fact that eighteen brothers chose to go to with their troops to Murray's Mill Harvest Festival that weekend. These Brothers helped out with various activities at the Festival and it's logistics.

At the October Chapter Meeting, we installed our new offices in a ceremony full of tradition and ritual. The members then proceeded to individually throw a tomahawk at a target pumpkin. Former chapter chief Sam Trotsentoe won the event, and the pumpkin, by sinking his tomahawk into the center of the defenseless gourd.

We are planning several activities in the near future. We will hold a Fall Feast at the November meeting and provide service to Hickory and Newton/Conover Cooperative Christian Ministries by receiving, sorting, and storing the food, which is brought in by Troops and Packs through the Scouting for Food good turn. We will have teams scheduled to ring the bell for the Salvation Army and help light luminaries at Catawba Memorial Park. We also produced a new Chapter t-shirt.

Nv ya o sa ni

Nv ya o sa ni chapter ceremony team moved its practice nights from Wednesday nights to Sunday evenings at Concord Presbyterian Church at 7pm. They are currently looking for new members if you are interested in joining contact Tyler Lipski Chairman or Donnie Mahler Adviser.

We recently started a Drum Team and practices are every 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month at Concord Presbyterian Church in Statesville. Interested in joining our drum team contact Brandon Perry Chairman or Greg Belle-Isle Adviser (interim).

We are currently meeting every second Tuesday of each month at Concord Presbyterian Church but we are looking for a more central location to meet.
